

Persuasive Writing Essay Choices

Computer Games

Some parents think spending a lot of time on the computer can be unhealthy for their children. So, they limit the amount of time their children can spend on the computer each day. Write an essay in which you state and support your position on limiting the time children spend on the computer games each day.

School break

Many students in your school feel that they should have a 10-minute break in the morning and afternoon. Decide if you agree or disagree with this proposal. Write a multiple-paragraph letter to your principal persuading him or her to support your position.

PE activity

Your teacher wants to change the activities offered in your physical education class. Identify one activity that should be added or dropped, and write a multiple-paragraph letter to persuade your teacher to add or drop this activity.

School Vacations

Opinions vary on whether students should have one long summer vacation each year or several short vacations throughout the school year. Which point of view do you agree with? Write an essay explaining why one vacation or many vacations would be the right choice for your school. Use reasons and examples to support your opinion.

Recycling

Some people think that all households should be required to recycle paper, glass and plastic. Other people think that recycling should be a choice, not a requirement. Write an op-ed piece that supports your position on whether or not recycling should be voluntary.
